Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Students may cancel their Enrollment Agreement and request a refund in writing. If notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or by the seventh day after signing the enrollment agreement, (whichever is later) the Student will be entitled to 100% refund, less a $200.00 application fee. Refunds owed to students will be made within 30 days. In the event the student wishes to withdraw or is terminated after the above-mentioned time frame, Student is not entitled to a refund on STRF fee, books, supplies, materials, and application fees. If a school is permanently closed and is no longer offering instruction after the student has enrolled, the student shall be entitled to a pro-rata refund on tuition. If student is of minor age, notice of termination must be made to Guarantor. Any sums paid to the Institution (Paris Beauty College) herein shall be subject to the following refund policy:

- a) If a student cancels the enrollment agreement or withdraws prior to course completion, they may submit in writing to the Administration office or email a request to ParisBTYcollege@aol.com. A Pro rata refund of moneys paid for institutional charges will be made for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the student's scheduled attendance. For withdrawals after the 60% point of the students scheduled attendance, school may retain 100% of money owed. Refunds are calculated according to the last documented date of attendance and issued within 45 days of the withdrawal notification date, or the date Paris Beauty College determines the student is no longer enrolled, whichever is earlier. A pro rata refund pursuant to section 94919(c) or 94920(d) or 94927 of the Code shall be no less than the total amount owed by the student for the portion of the educational program provided subtracted from the amount paid by the student, calculated as follows: (1) The amount owed equals the daily charge for the program (total institutional charge, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days student attended, or was scheduled to attend, prior to withdrawal. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial aid programs.
- b) If the student received a loan guaranteed by the federal government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur: (Paris Beauty College does not participate in the Federal Student Loan program or any student loan programs. Paris Beauty College does not lend money or extend credit.)
  - 1) The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan.
  - 2) The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other government assistance until the loan is repaid.

- c) Enrollment time is defined as the time elapsed between the start date and the student's last day of physical attendance in the School. The cancellation notices must be in writing and may be submitted by mail, hand delivered, or via fax with the effective date to be the day the school receives the notice. If submitted by U.S. mail, the cancellation is effective on the date postmarked. In cases of leave of absences, regardless of duration, the termination date is the last date of physical attendance. If a student fails to return from a scheduled leave of absence, (a leave of absence may never exceed 90 days in any 12-month period) then the student will be dropped, and any refunds owed will be made within 45 days from the date student should have returned. If Student fails to notify the School of withdrawal, the School must terminate the student after 14 days of consecutive absences and refund the Student within 45 days of termination. Within 30 days of the day on which the refund is made, the institution shall notify the student in writing of the date on which the refund was made, the amount of the refund, the method of calculating the refund, and the name and address of the entity to which the refund was sent.
- d) Students who withdraw or terminate prior to course completion are subject to the guidelines of the school's refund policy. This refund policy applies to tuition and fees charged in the enrollment agreement. Other miscellaneous charges the student may have incurred at institution (EG: extra kit materials, extra books, products, unreturned school property, etc.) will be calculated separately at the time of withdrawal. All fees are identified in the catalog and in the enrollment agreement.
- e) The Proof of Training Document/Transcript forms will be issued, and all required paperwork completed within 30 days. The Proof of Training/Transcript form is a document showing the number of clock hours completed. The Transcript form will show the number of theory hours and practical operations completed.
- f) If a course is canceled subsequent to a Student's enrollment, the School shall provide a refund of all moneys paid.
